Under Massachusetts law, an equine professional is not liable for an injury to or the death of, a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities, pursuant to Chapter 128, section 2D of General Laws. " I hereby enter the above ride at my own risk. I understand that trail riding can involve being in remote areas for extended periods of time, far from communication, transportation and medical facilities. These areas may have natural hazards which management can not anticipate, eliminate, modify or control. I understand that accidents can happen to anyone at any time. I hereby release, today and forever, the Barre Riding and Driving Club, ride personnel and any land owners, public or private, over whose land the trail may pass, from any suits or charges resulting from any accidents or losses, either caused by me or my horse, or equipment."
